Agreement with
E. Robinson
Mr. Kirkland
Dec 20

It is hereby agreed between Mary Kirkland & Edward Robinson that the said Mary, for the considerations hereinafter mentioned, hereby relinquishes & makes over to the said Edward during her natural life all her right to the dwelling house of the said parties except two rooms; & in consideration thereof the said Edward engages to furnish the said Mary during her natural life with firewood & all the other conveniences of living for herself & the friends who may call to see her, & also to have for her use a horse & chaise whenever she shall ride abroad.

In presence of Clinton May 15. 1819

Mrs. Robinson
