

20. July 1818

My dear Sister,

I went to Milton yesterday - Mrs A. has her usual winter cold - Cornelia stuffed, otherwise they are well. Dr Richmond a respectable the widower minister of $48. - is sorry not to be accepted as a husband by Mr Soyant, who likes him as a literary & worthy friend, but not as a husband.

Mr Southwell will undoubtedly let you have the money for this check which I procured at an Auction, to pay the writ of sending money - tells you see it is not good without Mr Southwell's name. My kindest respects & dutiful remembrance when due.

With great affection
J. T. Kirkland
